I am speechless from the first comment and regret that this student did have a bad experience. I am not sure I understand what this student refers to.
I always keep myself available to all students and encourage all

Student Comments

The professor is a very petty person and was not able to keep herself professional during of scheduled meetings, and in class. Also, there was more than one occurrence of where she w back-handedly insult half of the class. She also picks favorite students and let a fellow studei class. With her favoritism there are some students that get more practice and guidance thar because she does not offer the same opportunities to the rest of the class. This perpetuates petty and judgmental person which affects her teaching the class effectively.  The thing the time she give to students, the first time i had a teacher who really give her time to stude easy class  This course was both challenging and exciting. I had very little knowledge or of the topic prior to arrival to the course, but Dr. Ceberio provided clear and thorough lectur plenty of practice assignments for complete understanding. She was willing to meet studen and was willing to walk through problems that we didn't quite grasp, but on an individual le makes a world of a difference. Personally, I was able to bring my grade up several letter gra meeting with her once or twice and having her walk me through a problem. I now have a gr computational theory, and will hopefully be able to apply it further along my studies.  Ru students. "Look it up in the internet" is not good advice. The way you do things is not the or Inpatient.  Awesome instructor. Really liked the way the class was structured. The profes attentive and willing to help clear up any questions and concerns.  Well, the instructor a lot about what she is teaching. however, many times was hard ti understand different topics sometimes she would assigned homework without explain or clarify a new concept making hard. And she seems obsessed with time like she would get mad if you arrive 5 minutes late wanted to pick exams on time without waiting any extra minute but when it comes to us an of course she wanted to take extra time.  Dr. Ceberio is a rare professor. She is the only I have run into during my time at UTEP who has gone above and beyond the call of duty! Sh examines the work that each student does and when she see's a problem, she schedules an and helps people work though it. She actually wants each and every person to not only ac and helps people work through it. She definitely wants each and every person to not only see but to understand all of the content that is taught within. She demands respect, and after this semester has definitely earned mine.
